

HAGARNAS EVENT & CATERING

Weddings

Personal celebrations with heart, flavour and laughter —
shaped around the two of you.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

A wedding should be lived — not just carried out

When you book Hagarnas you do not get a large team, a fixed system or an off-the-shelf package. You get me — my care, my experience, my creativity and my full attention on your day.

THE SMALL STUDIO

A small company with a big heart

I offer personal solutions that stand apart from larger, more standardised alternatives. There are no fixed packages — each wedding is shaped together with you.

You can hand me the whole celebration — planning, coordination and food — or just one piece, such as only the catering or only the planning. Combine the parts that fit your day.

WHAT I OFFER

From the first idea to the last toast

Together we tailor the day to your wishes — whether you picture an intimate dinner or a generous celebration with everyone you love around one long table.

I help with:

- Planning and coordination
- Catering and cake
- Full-service or selected parts

My aim is simple: that you can relax and be fully present on your day.

THE FOOD

Food — the heart of the celebration

The meal is one of the most important parts of a wedding. It should surprise, move and gather everyone around the table.

I work mostly with sharing plates because they bring life, natural rhythm and a sense of togetherness:

- Guests begin to talk and pass dishes around
- Conversation moves easily down the table
- Dinner finds a softer pace
- The mood turns warm, relaxed and alive

My cooking is built around:

- Produce from nearby growers, chosen by season
- Menus shaped together with you
- A tasting before the wedding
- Service and full-event solutions when needed

Wherever you marry, I come to you and create a meal that feels personal and considered.

WHY HAGARNAS

No two weddings the same

There are no template solutions here — every wedding is shaped around your story and your dreams.

Hagarnas is a good fit if you:

- Want the flexibility to choose the whole or just parts — planning, coordination, food
- Value care and quality over volume
- Wish for a warm, easy and inviting celebration

I take on only a limited number of weddings each year, so every couple gets my full focus.

Imagine a wedding with food everyone wants to taste, a mood everyone wants to be in and memories you will never forget — that is what we can create together.
